Instant Temptation is the third in Jill's Wilder Brothers series. I've read all three from the beginning and while I liked the two previous stories, I believe this is my favorite of all. One of the best parts of the story is she sets the scene in the California Sierras, one of my favorite places in the world and lucky for me only a less than three hour drive from my home.

If you are a fan of Jill Shalvis or are looking for some new reading material, I highly recommend the Wilder series but I definitely suggest reading them in order so I would start with Instant Attraction. These books are good, sweet, lighthearted contemporary romances and I can't wait to read more of Jill Shalvis' novels!
