Books similar to Senlin Ascends (The Books of Babel, #1)

This book is bonkers, entertaining, clever and - quite possibly - unique. Senlin Ascends crosses the everyday strangeness and lyrical prose of Borges and Gogol with all the action and adventure of high fantasy. I loved it, and grabbed the next one as soon as I turned the last page. This is an exceedingly rich book.

Senlin Ascends was great. A mixture of fun and serious content, that handled the tone brilliantly. Despite the contrasting parts of the atmosphere, Josiah Bancroft was very good at subtly going from one to another in a “real” manner, which surprisingly didn't jar, as it has with many other authors.
